Dear Sir.

I have been intending ever since my return to Berlin to write to you to recall your promise on occasion of my most agreeable visit to Mr Corcorans Art Gallery, to allow me to be useful to you if possible in obtaining casts &c here. I was especially reminded of your kind attentions this morning by receiving the accompanying catalogues of a dealer in plaster casts here. which will give you an idea of the prices and may suggest some things which you have not yet had. I presume that anything in the Museum could be copied by their own men cheaper even than these. and as I believe you told me you have an Art Catalogue of the Royal Museum here you could let me know of any particular thing you would like them and I could apply directly to the Curator whom I know personally.

W. Macleod Esq
Washington, DC.

I dont remember whether you have a collection of casts of old seals. medals &c. There is a very wonderful collection of antique intaglios in the Museum copies of all of which can be had. Our former Minister Mr White purchased quite a large number of them for the Cornell University. I see this man (Eichler) offers a complete set of the Winckelmann Collection for 650. Mark about ($150) or at 22 Mark a hundred for smaller quantities.

I suppose that casts can also be had readily of the Pergamos & Olympian Collections the originals of both of which are now here

In short I will assist you in any way I can in obtaining casts or information and will esteem it a favor if you will command my services.

With Kindest regards to Mr Corcoran when you see him.

Faithfully yours

A. Sidney Dudley

Dr Sir

I write you for the purpose of making some enquiries in reference to the mode of Purchase adopted by the Corcoran Art Gallery. I have some very beautiful little paintings pertaining to the natural History of the American Forests. and I thought of opening up a correspondence with a view to the sale of them. They are entirely new and were obtained after a long research as to the habits of the Birds and Animals &c.

I have also a large Painting (4-6 + 6-6) of the last Siege of Fort Henry the last Battle of the Revolutionary War. Which is absolutely true to History and very pleasing as a work of art.

I would refer you to Senator H. G. Davis Washington. D.C James A. McCauley Clerk in the Pension Office Washington and U. S. Marshall S. W. Atkinson Wheeling W.Va.

Hoping to receive an answer Soon I am very truly Yours

Mr McLeod.

Dear Sir.

I have to day sent Mr Wilmurt the two pictures that I spoke to you about, when in Washington. He will express them to you at once, express age being prepaid - The oil picture, ("Fruit & Flowers") represents a stone vase in the open grounds, filled to over flowing with flowers, some of the flowers have tumbled out upon the fruit, which is heaped at the base. The price of this is $300.

The water color "May in the Alleghanies", represents a green ledge of the mountains, with the mountain spring flowers growing in a mass. The price of the water color is $100. — Should the committee decide adversely to my wishes, please to announce the fact to me, before returning the box, for I should place them with Mr Barlow for awhile, & will let him know as soon as I hear from you — Hoping that they may be considered worthy to be placed on sale, in the Corcoran gallery.

I remain,

Yours very truly,

Mrs M. A. Kennicott

Dear Doctor:

Prof. Agassiz has written to me, requesting that the Casts of Heine's pictures should be pledged with Count Portalès some years ago, shall be taken away.

I have no concern with them, but as amicus Curiae, have written to say that if he will have them shipped at Rose freight to the Corcoran Gallery, they will be received there — and then — I will see that his expenses are paid.

If the Corcoran Gallery will pay the freight, I shall be glad — otherwise, I'll settle the bill. You will remember that you told me I might have the boxes stored with you.

So — if you have to pay freight — let me know when the articles come. [if the Corcoran won't pay it.]

I hope you enjoy your visit, this fine weather, the success of the gallery, & that you still have the storm-cock of a warm day & glass of ale, and that you have not quite forgotten

Yrs. very truly
